

President's Welcome Points 2021-2022

Personal Aims

- For the committee to work as a team and to develop a team oriented culture
- To get each team member to fully fulfill their designated responsibilities
- To get committee solidarity on decisions even when they might not necessarily agree with them
- To encourage other club members to be involved in our activities and operations as a way to bring new people onto the committee in coming years.

Methods of Operation

- Meetings of about an hour
- Minimal interference in committee members carrying out their roles
- Timely reminders of commitments of completing assigned tasks
- Insistence on cooperative working relationship with other committee members
- Respectful debate when different points of view are being argued
- Insistence on clarity of relevant points of the issues during debate
- Improved communications with all members about our activities
- Moving on after decisions are made
